KILLMEYER'S UNION HOTEL circa 1907

KILLMEYER'S is the oldest tavern on Staten Island. It first opened in 1859. The carved Mahogany bar was custom built here in 1890 when the hotel expansion was done.

The building was owned by the Killmeyer family and it's heirs until the Simonson family bought it in 1945 and owned it for 50 years. The Simonson's first named their establishment "Rube's", then changed it to "The Century Inn", to commemorate it's 100th birthday in 1959.

TIME OUT NEW YORK and THE VILLAGE VOICE have named it the best bar in New York City.
